■ Facility Information

【Lake Inawashiro (猪苗代湖)】

It is the fourth largest lake in Japan and located in Fukushima. It is a popular leisure spot where visitors can enjoy cruising and camping on a sightseeing boat. In winter, swans fly to the lake, which is known as a beautiful sight.

【Inawashiro Original Beer Brewery (猪苗代地ビール館)】

An authentic local beer made with famous water from Mt. Bandai and German raw materials. It will be the first tourist attraction in Fukushima Prefecture to focus on local beer.

【World Glassware Hall Inawashiro (世界のガラス館)】

World Glassware Hall Inawashiro exhibits mysterious and beautiful glass products from all over the world. 25,000 items are on display.

【Kawakyo Ramen-kan Inawashiroten (河京ラーメン館猪苗代店)】

It is a ramen theme park where you can also enjoy an all-you-can-eat Aizu Kitakata ramen buffet.

【Hideyo Noguchi Memorial Infectious Disease Museum (野口英世記念館・感染症ミュージアム)】

This museum is a facility dedicated to infectious diseases that originated in Japan. Visitors can learn about the history of infectious diseases such as syphilis, which was researched by Hideyo Noguchi, as well as the Spanish flu and the new coronavirus infection.

【Hotel Hananoyu (ホテル華の湯)】

Hotel Hananoyu is popular for its buffet dining and offers a variety of hot spring baths, including 30 types of baths, and a range of vegetable dishes. It is one of the best hot spring inns in Tohoku that can accommodate all types of customers, from meetings and parties to banquets. You can also enjoy a soba making experience and hot spring bathing at the facility.

【Fukushima OUSE WINERY (ふくしま蓬瀬ワイナリー)】

This winery processes and sells wine, cider, liqueur, and brandy using locally-sourced fruits such as peaches, pears, apples, and grapes from Fukushima. Additionally, we offer a selection of products from Fukushima Prefecture that complement the wine experience. Visitors can also sample sparkling wine and cider during their visit.

■ Facility Information

【Aizu Bukeyashiki (会津武家屋敷)】

The residential complex of a top-ranking Edo period Aizu retainer, Tanomo Saigo, is featured at this museum park. There is also a bailiff's office that has been designated an Important Cultural Asset of Fukushima Prefecture, as well as a tea house, a rice mill, and other buildings of historical interest on the grounds.

【Suehiro Shuzo (末廣酒造)】

This facility has a history of being founded in 1850, and is a large-scale sake brewery in the Aizu area in terms of both production volume and lineup.

【Tsurugajo Kaikan (鶴ヶ城会館)】

At this facility, you can purchase folk crafts that represent Aizu and famous confectionery from Fukushima Prefecture. You can also enjoy the local cuisine of Aizu.

【Tsurugajo Castle (鶴ヶ城)】

Tsurugajo Castle is currently selected as one of the top 100 castles in Japan. With a history of more than 600 years since its construction, the castle boasts a site area of about 69,000 square meters, and there are many attractions to enjoy in Tsurugajo Park.

【Aizu Nisshinkan Observatory Ruins (日新館天文台跡)】

This is the remains of an astronomical observatory that was used in the Nisshin Building of the Aizu Domain School. It is the only surviving astronomical observatory site from the Edo period. It has been designated as a Aizuwakamatsu City Designated Historic Site and also as an Astronomical Heritage by the Japan Astronomical Society.

【Aizu Hanko Nisshinkan (会津藩校日新館)】

Aizu Hanko Nisshinkan is a faithful restoration facility of the Aizu Domain School, which was built in 1803 for the purpose of developing human resources. In addition to seeing the magnificent Edo architecture and the state of learning at that time, you can also experience bushido."
